Discrimination Based on Disability Process

Once a discrimination complaint is received by Community Transit, the Executive Department will review the complaint and the complainant will receive an acknowledgment letter informing them whether or not the complaint will be investigated by Community Transit.

Community Transit's goal is to resolve these complaints within 30 days. After the Executive Department reviews the complaint, one of two letters will be issued to the complainant: a closure letter or a letter of finding (LOF). A closure letter summarizes the allegations and states that there was no disability violation and that the case is closed. An LOF summarized the allegations and provides an explanation of the corrective action taken. If the complainant wished to appeal the decision, they have 30 days after the date of the letter to do so.

The appeal should be submitted in writing stating the reason(s) for the appeal and should be submitted to Community Transit Attn: Executive Department 7100 Hardeson Road, Everett, WA 98203. Community Transit's CEO, or his/her designee, shall promptly consider the appeal. Consideration of the appeal will be based on the written appeal and accompanying documentation and with the discretion of the CEO or designee may include a meeting with the appealing party. Community Transit’s CEO or designee shall, within a reasonable time but not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days from receipt of the appeal by Community Transit, issue a written decision to the appealing party. The decision shall include an explanation of the reasons for the decision and any facts that were considered in rendering the decision. The decision by the CEO or designee shall constitute the final administrative determination by Community Transit.

A person may file a complaint directly with the Federal Transit Administration, at FTA Office of Civil Rights, 1200 New Jersey, Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20590
