Action Items
There were no additional action items.

Chair’s Report
Mayor Jon Nehring stated it was time for the annual CEO performance review. Evaluation forms were distributed to all Board members and should be returned to him no later than January 20. The quarterly Board workshop was scheduled for January 19 at 3 p.m. The next regular Board meeting was scheduled for February 2 at 3 p.m. and the annual election of Board officers would be held at that meeting.

Chief Executive Officer’s Report
Todd Morrow, Chief of Strategic Communications, provided a legislative report. He noted the state legislature was in session from January 9 to April 23. A legislative lunch in Olympia sponsored by Economic Alliance Snohomish County (EASC) was scheduled for February 10. On the Federal level, the 115th Congress had convened.
CEO Emmett Heath reported the following items:

Partnership & Advocacy
- Emmett, Todd Morrow, and Joy Munkers met with Everett Mayor Ray Stephanson to discuss partnership opportunities and the new Swift Green Line.
- The Farm House Gang met December 16 to discuss opportunities to connect North Puget Sound with other areas of the region. The committee was formed in 1996 and had grown to include transit staff, elected officials and citizens from the northwest part of the state.
- United Way’s new CEO would attend the January 19 Board workshop to meet the Board members.

Financial Stewardship

- Washington State Transit Insurance Pool (WSTIP) recently conducted a market pricing survey and used Community Transit as one of the test agencies. Results showed Community Transit is saving 27-41% through WSTIP as compared to private insurance providers.

Employment Experience

- Bob Throckmorton, Director of Customer Experience, was set to retire the first quarter of 2017. Molly Marsicek was hired as the new director and would start January 17, 2017.
- Recent visits with employees around the agency were very enjoyable. Employees were thanked for their service.

Board Communication

Lynnwood Councilmember and Board alternate George Hurst stated this would be his last meeting as he had a new assignment. He thanked Board members and staff for their efforts that made Community Transit such a great organization. Chair Jon Nehring expressed appreciation to Councilmember Hurst for his active participation and extended best wishes for the future.

Councilmember Tom Hamilton invited everyone to attend the City of Snohomish’s GroundFrog Day on January 30.

Councilmember Jan Schuette announced Arlington’s Eagle Fest on February 4. She also stated the Oso Memorial Bike Run between Arlington and Darrington was scheduled for March 19.

Mayor Dave Earling stated that three Regional Fare Forums were completed and a report would be issued soon. Additional meetings would be scheduled.

Emmett Heath showed a holiday video clip sent to Community Transit from two retired employees.

Executive Session

An Executive Session was called at 3:32 p.m. for 10 minutes to discuss labor negotiations. The regular meeting resumed at 3:42 p.m.

Motion was made by Mayor Dave Earling to approve Resolution No. 02-17, authorizing the CEO to execute and implement a labor contract between Community Transit and the International Association of Machinists, District Lodge No. 160, representing Service Quality Monitor employees. The motion was seconded by Councilmember Stephanie Wright and passed unanimously.

Another Executive Session was called at 3:45 p.m. for 20 minutes to review the performance of a public employee. The session was extended for 5 minutes and the regular meeting resumed at 4:10 p.m.

Councilmember Tom Hamilton made a motion to direct the Corporate Attorney to draft an amendment to the employment contract of Emmett Heath, CEO of Community Transit, which shall include the following terms and conditions:

1. Base salary of $209,309, effective on January 1,
2017; and (2) Other benefits consisting of deferred compensation of $21,914. The motion was seconded by Councilmember Mike Todd and passed unanimously.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:11 p.m.

Other Business

The next regular Board meeting will be held February 2, 2017, at 3 p.m. at Community Transit’s Board Room, 7100 Hardeson Road, Everett, WA.
